

10 THINGS A REALTOR CAN DO WHILE SOCIAL DISTANCING

Just because you're doing your part to be safe and responsible during the COVID-19 public health crisis doesn't mean you can't be productive. Check out these ideas!

1 ONLINE CLASSES

Catch up on your continuing education requirements. Visit <https://pgcar.theceshop.com> for discounts.

2 DO YOUR TAXES

The IRS extended the deadline for filing tax returns and making required payments until July 15, 2020. www.irs.gov

3 CREATE A MARKET UPDATE

Host a Facebook or Instagram Live update on local market conditions or community resources.

4 RESPOND TO THE 2020 CENSUS

Spread the word! Encourage your clients and business network to complete the 2020 Census.

5 SET UP A VIRTUAL TOUR OF YOUR LISTINGS

Bright MLS updated regulations surrounding showing restrictions, virtual showings, and virtual tours. Visit www.brightmls.com.

6 COMPLETE YOUR REALTOR.COM PROFILE

Visit www.realtor.com and complete your agent profile to make a strong brand impression for buyers and sellers.

7 COMPLETE C2EX

NAR's Commitment to Excellence, or C2EX, is a great way to demonstrate your professionalism and dedication to conducting business at the highest standards. Visit c2ex.realtor to earn your designation online.

8 APPLY FOR AN NAR COMMITTEE

Get involved! Joining an NAR committee is a great way to help shape the direction of NAR and its policies.
